

With you every step of the way.

The Forensic & Valuation Services Division of Weyrich Cronin & Sorra

If you are involved in a legal dispute or considering the prospect of litigation, you need solid advice that you can rely on. Our team of specialists have extensive experience working with attorneys and clients like you.

We can assist with each stage of your case, from helping your attorney manage the discovery process to evaluating its financial or tax implications to you. We are also available to provide expert testimony and aid in developing fiscally sound settlement proposals.

If you are an attorney working on a case that requires the use of independent experts to testify, consult or prepare detailed financial analysis, our Forensic and Valuation Specialists are here to assist.

Our litigation team has extensive experience in assisting with case strategy and discovery, more specifically with interrogatories, requests for production of document requests, depositions, calculating damages and producing reports.

Offering services beyond that of traditional forensic accountants is what sets us apart. We are experienced at preparing court exhibits that show complicated financial information in simple, graphic format. Our team is committed to you and your financial future.
